

Maritime culture across frontiers

8th European Maritime Heritage Congress
Aabenraa - Flensburg · 4.-7.06.2014

PROGRAMME

Wednesday 4 June 2014

18:00 - 20:00 Reception for the Congress participants Bildungstätte Knivsberg

Thursday 5 June 2014

Till 09:00 Registration Haus Nordschleswig

09.00 - 10.00 Opening speeches and welcome by Hinrich Jürgensen
President of the German Minority in Denmark

Per Jessing
President of EMH

Carl Holst
President of Region Syddanmark

Thomas Andresen
Mayor of Aabenraa

Simon Faber
Mayor of Flensburg

10:00 - 10:30 Break

10:30 – 12:30

Session 1 – Maritime Europe

Ships in operation have always by their nature connected regions. Together with regular trade, knowledge and culture have been exchanged in spite of national borders and have brought together wider cultural areas like the Baltic and Mediterranean. Also in future this exchange should be treasured.

Chair: Per Jessing
President of EMH

Maritime culture has always transcended borders

Franz Thönnnes

Deputy-Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs
Chair of the German delegation in Baltic Sea Parliamentary Conference

Tourism networking & action with and for traditional ships in operation

Holger Bellgardt

Director Hanse Sail, board member EMH

12.00 – 14:00

Break – Lunch

Guided tours in the Maritime Museum Aabenraa

14:00 – 15:30

Session 2 – Guardians of our conscience

EMH has drafted the Barcelona Charter to support owners of traditional ships in preserving and restoring their vessels. The knowledge about the fleet, necessary for proper restoration, is within the maritime museums. A good cooperation between museums and ship owners is important.

Chair: Nis-Edwin List-Petersen
EMH, Cultural Council Denmark

Importance of network in the south

Maria Paola Profumo

President of AMMM

Importance of network in the north

Thomas Overdick

Director of Flensburg Maritime Museum and member of the Baltic Sea Maritime Museums' Network (BSMMN)

Importance of cross-boundary network

Vincent Büsch

Projectmanager of the German-Danish network "Maritimes Erbe / Den maritime arv"

15.30 – 16:00

Break

16:00 – 17:30

Session 3 – Interregional Co-operation

Within Europe there is much to be learned from each other, especially in mutual cooperation across borders. Success stories are offered the floor for short presentations. The EU stimulates interregional co-operation and new EU programs will be presented.

Chair: Lauge Damstrup Brøndum
President TS

5 minutes papers

Capt Vladimir Martus

Martine van Lier

Odd Nordahl-Hansen

Willem Plet (editor)

Chantal Flament/Didier Épart

Shtandart: from Russia, across all borders

Amsterdam floating heritage inventory

Film Norwegian lighthouses

Wallbreaker project

Maritime Culture across frontiers

Examples of successes in regional co-operation

Martine van Lier

Director Erfgoedwerf and board member FONV

Piotr Królak

Maritime Education and Sail Training in Southern Baltic (M.A.S.T. project)

18:00 – 19:00

Reception on board of three-master GEORGE STAGE

Aabenraa Port

Dinner

20:00 – 21:30

Evening program

Bildungsstätte Knivsberg

Expeditions with the Fishing Cutter DAGMAR AAEN

Arved Fuchs

Multimedia Presentation

Friday 6 June 2014

09:30 – 10:30

Opening and welcomespeech by Jens A. Christiansen

Secretary General of the Danish Minority in Germany

Flensborghus

The theme of this congress is very well exemplified in the Danish-German region around Aabenraa and Flensburg. A presentation of this success as a teaser to be followed.

Guided tour to Historischer Hafen, Flensburg

Frank Petry, Rainer Prüß, Martin Schulz

10:30 – 12:30

Session 4 – Freedom to Sail

The freedom to sail has always been vital for international trade and vulnerable for national regulations and toll barriers. For cultural exchange and profitable exploitation of traditional ships in operation the freedom of changes will remain important in the future.

Chair: Thomas Overdick

Director, Flensburg Maritime Museum

David Morgan MBE, TD,

Chairman, The Maritime Heritage Trust

Problems/challenges from Danish perspective

Lauge Damstrup Brøndum

President of TS

Problems/challenges from German perspective

Thomas Hoppe

President of GSHW

IHTS Panel

Frits Loomeijer

Director Maritime Museum Rotterdam

Opportunities at the European level

Timo Schubert

Managing Director, ADS Insight Deutschland GmbH

12.30 – 14:00 Break – Lunch – Guided tours in the Maritime Museum Flensburg

14:00 – 15:00

Session 5 – Beauty of Maritime Heritage

EMH considers European Maritime Heritage as important, as do the owners of ships. Society has to be convinced that it is not old ships only, but also a legacy of cultural exchange with other regions.

Chair: Thomas Hoppe
Chairman EMH Safety Council

Importance of local event cross borders

Anne Svendsen
Hai Kutter Race

Importance of local event cross borders

Martin Schulz
Museum Port Flensburg

Importance of local event for the city

Holger Bellgardt
Director Hanse Sail, board member EMH

Importance of classic yachting

Sönke Stich
Yachtmaster of Robbe & Berking Classics

Importance of integrated maritime heritage

Tore Friis-Olsen
Adviser and project manager of Forbundet Kysten

15:00 – 16:00

Break

16:00 – 17:30

Conclusions & Declaration – Anchors aweigh

Chair: Per Jessing

Conclusions

Per Jessing, President of EMH
Nis-Edwin List-Petersen, Chairman Cultural Council EMH
Lauge Damstrup Brøndum, President TS
David Morgan, Chairman Maritime Heritage Trust
Thomas Hoppe, Chairman Safety Council EMH
Hendrik Boland, Vice-President of EMH

Declaration on behalf of 8th EMH Congress

17:30 – 20:00

Boat trip & dinner on board of steamship ALEXANDRA

21:00 – 22:00

Evening program

Maritime Museum Flensburg

Monuments under Sail
Joachim Kaiser

Saturday 7 June 2014

09:00 – 10:00

General Assembly EMH

Maritime Museum Flensburg

13:00 – 15:00

TS-Pinsestævne (Danish Ship preservation Træskibs Sammenslutning Pentecost meeting)

Guest on the Russian frigate SHTANDART of the TS-sailing-parade
Flensburg Harbour